*"If heaven had granted me five more years,
I could have become a real painter."*

-HOKUSAI

Katsushika Hokusai was a Japanese ukiyo-e artist of the Edo period, active as a painting and printmaker. Hokusai is widely recognised as one of Japan's greatest artists, having modernised traditional print styles through his innovations in subject and composition. I have always been fascinated by Japanese culture, and thus my love for Japanese Artwork blossomed.

"To me, the world's rather beautiful if you look at it.
Especially nature."
